Minutes from Previous Meeting:

Approved as read.

Treasurers Report:

Nothing much to report on. No money coming in, no money going out. Sitting around 11,000 in the bank. Still in the process of changing signatory's over

Committee Reports:

DLO: No report

DPSST: Campus is still closed. Aerial operator this weekend for R5. Beyond that nothing much to report

LCC: No recent meeting, no report

OMB: No report

MCB: No report

Classes:

- Not planning classes at this time
- Leadership In Supervision in the works
- EMS Grand Rounds are going well. Very few open positions. Focused on Covid-19 and increased testing. Consider preparing for an increase in cases and stock up on PPE. Concern for publicly funded agencies as estimates for funding expect decreases in revenue due to Covid. Discussed documentation of lights and sirens, and use of PPE. Huge number of attendees of the online EMS continuing education trainings. Oregon EMS Conference will be held online this year.

Old Business:

- Still attempting to figure out what CLEMS has purchased in the past. If you have knowledge please Casey know.
- EMS Locker at Riverbend has been mostly been cleaned out and equipment is back in circulation

New Business:

- Suggest R5TA get their own zoom account so that Fire Officer and other classes can be delivered via Zoom.
- Oakridge has an influx of new volunteers (12) that and looking to see if anyone is putting on an academy soon. Target Solutions was suggested to augment training
- Is anyone doing Diversity training and if so how do you accomplish that? Target Solutions was suggested. ILearn.oregon.gov is another free online option and offers an EMS specific class that earns continuing education credits.
- Emscoordinator.com lists resources for continuing education
- Critical care transport class was, so Peace Health will be offering the class using the UMBC curriculum and the only cost will be the book. More info at emscoordinator.com
- LFA ACLS/PALS class was cancelled and nothing is currently scheduled. It may be possible to do the trainings online and test in front of an instructor, but has not been tried locally.

Good of the Order:

- Oakridge, Arich is back to shift work and trying to train 12 new recruits.

Meeting Adjourned:

- 9:45

Next Meeting: 9:00 am, August 18th, 2020 @ GoToMeeting

Respectfully submitted,
Brent Peterson, R5TA Secretary
